

Blackdogs Alpine Ski Team

The Blackdogs Alpine ski racing club is looking to hire a U12 Head coach that is willing to Coach a group of athletes for the season. Our club trains out of Lake Louise Ski Resort and is known for being a Boutique high performance race club, that specializes in a low coach to athlete ratio. Our clubs philosophy believes that if you have the drive to succeed and you are willing to put the effort in we can provide the necessary positive environment and roll models to help reach your goals.

Job Tasks Physical Training and Preparation Program

- run training sessions
- Program · plan and design athlete/club on snow training program
- maintain mountain/ski area relations
- coordinate team/club training groups
- organize training camp(s)
- run on hill coaching and training sessions
- organize and conduct hill and course preparation
- Be knowledgeable about appropriate local, national or international rules and regulations that govern alpine ski racing
- drive to race/training venues
- supervise ski preparation sessions
- attend team captain/race meetings
- conduct athlete/team race info
- manage/book training-warm-up space
- setting race courses for the race organizing committee
- manage athlete goal setting/evaluation procedures
- manage athlete program throughout year (race selection) · supervise athletes off the hill where necessary Equipment
- maintain inventory records of all related program equipment (drills, gates, spare parts, bits, radios, tool kits, wax, etc.) · repair existing club/program equipment where possible
- maintain team/club vehicle in good working order
- create athlete/program calendar of events
- manage personal, club expenses

Renumeration is based on experience, Please submit resume and cover letter to Tony Seligman, fourothree@hotmail.com