

The Call:

This is a call to great skiers, serious coaches, and competitive people who want to be part of building something exceptional. Devil's Glen is searching for hard skiing, hard coaching, fun, dynamic, modern coaches. Devil's Glen Racing is working toward one clear objective: to become one of Canada's premier alpine racing programs.

We are building with intent. The Devil's Glen racing program is implementing a fully overhauled Long-Term Athlete Pathway that establishes a clear and consistent direction for athletes, families, coaches, and members. At the same time, we are delivering unified technical and tactical models that give our coaches a shared, modern framework—common language, clear expectations, and aligned teaching methods. The goal is simple: deliver consistent, high-quality coaching every day and ensure every athlete progresses with purpose.

Our Coaches:

As leaders, coaches must align with our organization's leadership and staff core values of being: Resiliently Positive, Have Pride, Dependable, Humbly Confident, and Be Kind. We are not just filling roles – we are looking for people who raise the standard.

Our coach hiring philosophy prioritizes being a good human first and is non-negotiable. Second, we want great skiers and racers on our staff. Finally, we seek out great pathway knowledge whether as a coach or athlete. We value coaches who work and coach hard, ski at a high level, are motivated to learn and improve, coach with intent and energy.

Our Program:

We believe great skiing builds great ski racers, that our coaching should be adaptive and not dogmatic, and that our culture and environment matter.

We are actively building a modern, aligned system that:

- Is clear and built for our own long-term athlete pathway needs
- Is a shared and progressive technical and tactical model across all levels
- Has consistent language across all levels
- Supports our "ski more" philosophy
