

WE ARE HIRING

Alpine Ski Racing Coaches – 2026/27 Season Coach at RED. Be Part of the RMR Tradition.

The Red Mountain Racers are seeking passionate alpine ski racing coaches for the 2026/27 season in Rossland, British Columbia.

For more than 75 years, RMR has been developing strong skiers and ski racers at RED Mountain. We're hiring across our programs, from U10 through FIS, and welcome experienced coaches, former racers and developing coaches looking to take the next step.

We're Looking for Coaches Who

- Are passionate about skiing and athlete development
- Create positive, challenging and supportive training environments
- Bring strong skiing and communication skills
- Enjoy working with young athletes and being part of a team
- Have alpine racing or coaching experience appropriate to the program level

Why Red Mountain Racers?

Train at RED Mountain Resort

Exceptional terrain, strong training opportunities and a ski racing culture that runs deep.

Learn from Experienced Leadership

Work closely with RMR Head Coach Phil Patterson, an accomplished alpine race coach with decades of experience in athlete development and competitive ski racing.

Develop as a Coach

Be part of an experienced, collaborative coaching team with mentorship and opportunities to continue your Alpine Canada coaching development.

Live the Rossland Lifestyle

Spend the winter in one of Canada's great ski towns, surrounded by outstanding skiing and year-round outdoor recreation.

What We Offer

- Competitive compensation based on experience and certification
- RED Mountain Resort season pass
- Coaching mentorship and professional development
- Opportunities across U10 through FIS programs
- A supportive and experienced coaching team

Join Us for 2026/27

Whether you're an experienced coach, former racer or developing coach, we'd like to hear from you.

Send your resume and a brief introduction to:
coaching@redmountainracers.com