

WE ARE HIRING

LEAD FIS RACE COACH - 2026/27

Lead the next generation of RMR racers.

The Red Mountain Racers are seeking an experienced and motivated Lead FIS Alpine Ski Racing Coach for the 2026/27 winter season in Rossland, British Columbia.

RMR has a proud history of developing athletes who have progressed to provincial and national teams, NCAA competition and the highest levels of alpine ski racing.

Our FIS program continues that tradition by providing committed athletes with the technical, tactical, physical and competitive environment they need to pursue their goals in the sport.

This is a seasonal leadership position and an opportunity to lead a motivated group of FIS athletes while training at RED Mountain Resort, one of Canada's great ski racing mountains.

Why Lead FIS at RED?

Lead an Established FIS Program

Take ownership of the day-to-day coaching and development of RMR's FIS athletes within a club with a long tradition of competitive ski racing.

Work Alongside Experienced Leadership

Work closely with RMR Head Coach Phil Patterson, an accomplished alpine race coach with decades of experience in athlete development and competitive ski racing. The role offers valuable collaboration, mentorship and professional growth.

Train and Live at RED

Coach on the exceptional terrain of RED Mountain Resort while spending the winter in Rossland, one of Canada's great ski towns.

The Role

The Lead FIS Coach will plan and deliver RMR's FIS training and competition program, including:

- Lead the day-to-day coaching and development of FIS athletes
- Plan and deliver technical and tactical on-snow training
- Set effective training environments and high-quality courses
- Use video analysis, athlete feedback and goal setting to support progression
- Prepare athletes for competition and provide race-day leadership
- Help coordinate the FIS training and race calendar
- Maintain a positive, safe and high-performance team culture
- Communicate effectively with athletes, families and the RMR coaching team

The Coach We're Looking For

- Significant experience coaching competitive alpine ski racers
- FIS-level coaching experience
- Strong technical skiing and course-setting skills
- Knowledge of FIS racing and competition environments
- Strong leadership, communication and organizational skills
- An athlete-centred and collaborative coaching approach
- Ability and willingness to travel for training and competition

Alpine Canada Performance Level Trained or Certified preferred, or equivalent international certification.

Candidates with strong FIS coaching experience who are progressing toward Performance Level certification may also be considered. Speed-event experience is a strong asset.

What We Offer

- Competitive compensation based on experience and qualifications
- RED Mountain Resort season pass
- Mentorship and professional development
- A collaborative and experienced coaching environment
- The opportunity to lead and shape RMR's FIS program

If you're ready to lead competitive FIS athletes and spend the winter coaching at RED, we'd like to hear from you.
